FALL ACTIVITIES

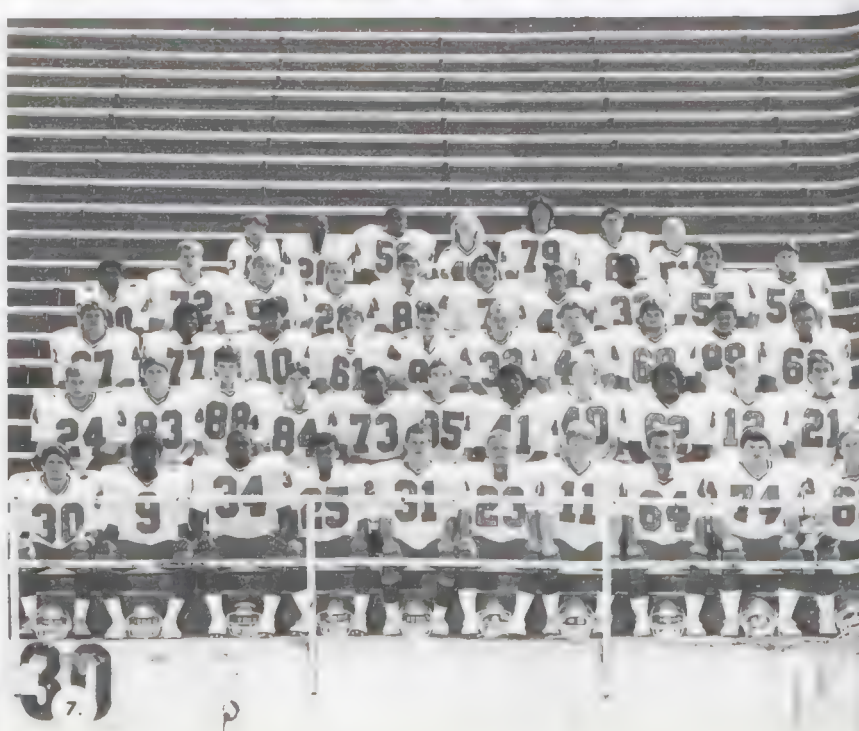

J.V. AND FROSH FAIR WELL ON FOOTBALL FIELD

The Tyger Freshmen compiled a record of 4-2. Coach Dave Moore, assisted by Nick Confalone and Jim Grubbs, recorded several impressive victories. Moore felt the team showed its composure when it took Madison into five overtimes before losing 26-24. The highlight of the season, however, was a 46-8 stomping over the cross-town rival Malabar.

The J.V. team broke even with a 4-4 record this season. Coach Halley Weaver piloted the team, assisted by Mike Lehman. The high points of the season were the composure and team unity displayed by the players. J.V. players will be moving up into the varsity ranks, hoping to establish their athletic prowess next season.

1. Tyger J.V.'s loosen up for the game. 2. Freshman coach Dave Moore studies the playing field. 3. The kicking team prepares for action. 4. The J.V. offensive line springs into action. 5. Tyger offense in a play. 6. the '86 Tyger Freshman Team. 7. Place kicker Rod Wiseman attempts a field goal. 8. Linebacker Chad Eldridge hustles off the field. 9. Tygers pile up on the line.

TYGERS HAVE A MEMORABLE SEASON

It was a disappointing season for the varsity football team and coaching staff. Key injuries got the season off to a bad start when the team needs to build confidence. Once the team started to lose, it had a snowball effect, and they never recovered.

The most exciting game was the win over Malabar. Coach Harold Dean stated, "Not only was it for bragging rights, but it was the first overtime game we had been associated with. The athletes played extremely hard, and it was a true team victory."

Awards went to: Lamar Marsh and Mike Burch, Captains; Marsh and Garth Eldridge, Offensive; Burch and Bobby Au, Defensive; Steve Scarbury, Coaches Award; Garth Eldridge, Jimo Adams Award; and Jud Mrurray, Jim Moyer, and Dustin Powers, Sophomore Award. Eldridge, Marsh, and Scarbury were also rewarded for their playing by being invited to the All-Star Game in July.

1. Lamar Marsh snags a pass. 2. Tygers score a touchdown! 3. Head Coach Harold Dean watches a play develop. 4. Braxton Daniels pounds through the line. 5. Mike Burch receives the opening kickoff. 6. Marsh rambles through Malabar's defense. 7. The '86 Tyger Football Team. 8. Burch scoops up a loose ball. 9. The defense prepares for battle. 10. Burch and Garth Eldridge block a field goal attempt. 11. Brian Stanish calls the signals. 12. Tygers prepare to return a punt. 13. Bobby Au waves to the crowd.

Homecoming is always one of the most exciting events of the year, and this year was no exception. "Almost Paradise" was chosen as the theme. A pool and a fountain, many lovely flowers and plants, and a fog created by dry ice helped to create the mood for the tropical theme. Olivia Hairston and Darron Minard sang the theme song, and the entire choir sang several other selections.

Laurie Jessop was crowned queen by the '85 queen, Jill Bradshaw. Her court consisted of Cindy Perry, Lisa Schindler, Raquel Eatmon, and Sherry Hill. M.C.'s Brucette Drye and Steve Ramshaw introduced the court.

1. Raquel Eatmon is escorted by Darius Carter. 2. Laurie's parents escort her into the stadium before the game. 3. Captains Mike Burch and Lamar Marsh proudly walk back after presenting the autographed football. 4. Laurie Jessop is escorted by John Fraley. 5. Olivia and Darron sing the theme song. 10. Sherry Hill and Jason Murray walk down the aisle. 11. Smile, John, your girlfriend's the queen! 12. The court and escorts pose for a picture together.

Tygers Start Rebuilding Year

The Tygers started a rebuilding year with only two returning lettermen, Dave Kracker and Todd Friend. The team had a record of 11-16-2 and received a third place trophy in the Tiger Tournament.

Dave Kracker, a three year varsity letterman, led the team the whole season and was named MVP. The Captain's Award went to Todd Friend, and Charles Webster was named Most Improved.

The '87 season should see the return of four varsity lettermen.

1. Charles Webster in his favorite position! 2. Concentration is the key to the game. 3. Brian Hawksworth keeps his eye on the ball. 4. Chris Bottorf gets a second opinion from teammates. 5. '86 Tyger Golf Team. 6. Sinking another par putt is Todd Friend. 7. Chipping is Friend's specialty. 8. Kracker shows his winning form. 9. On the tee is Chris Bottorf. 10. Friend shows the line to teammates.

SUCCESSFUL YEAR FOR CROSS COUNTRY

The Cross Country team had one of its best years, ending the season with a 17-3 record and the title of city champs. The Hillcats placed sixth out of twenty at District and missed qualifying by only one place.

This was the first time that Coach Mike Shrodek and his team had their own home course. It was laid out at Hidden Hollow Camp and proved to be one of the toughest courses in the area.

Junior Eric Hawkins set the school record for the 5K (3.1 miles) in 16:16 and was good enough to qualify for Regionals. He was also named MVP. Other awards went to Jeff Young, Captain; Darrin Brooks, Most Improved; and Rodney Haynes and Tracy White, Coaches Award.

On the girls' side, Nancy Trumpower set the school record at 21:00 and was named MVP. Other award winners were: Chrissy Kennebrew, Captain; Angie Coe, Most Improved; and Mimaco Grant and Donita Moreland, Coaches Award.

1. Tracy White checks his placement position at the finish line. 2. Hidden Hollow, the first home course for the Hillcats. 3. Coach Shrodek checks Darrin Brooks' ankle. 4. Netters Show Improvement This Season

The Tyger Girls' Tennis Team created a memorable season for themselves and their coach after an embarrassing '85 season of 0-17. This year they started slowly, losing their first six matches; however, they rallied to win the next six before losing the final two.

They will miss their two graduating seniors next year, but with so much improvement this year, they are looking forward to an exciting season in '87.

Special awards went to Kelly Henson, Captain, and Alissa Barnett, Most Improved Player. Henson shared the MVP award with Bonnie Parr.

1. Kelly Henson demonstrates her backhand. 2. Tanya Reed shows strong form. 3. Coach Goode makes a point to his players. 4. Bonnie Parr keeps her eye on the ball. 5. Karri Catello returns a serve. 6. Volleyball Season Ends Sadly

Coached by John Miefert, the team began their season in August, working for most of the month. There were four returning lettermen and five new players. The ladies ended with a winning record for the consecutive season but were unable to make it past sectional tournaments. There they were seeded #1 in the area and had to go against Lexington. Both teams fought hard, but Lex ended the match in overtime 18-6. Special awards went to Doreen Gilbert, MVP and Most Points; Terri Zellner, Most Improved; and Gilbert, Joy Holmes, and Susan Tridico shared the Captains' Award.

1. '86 Varsity Volleyball Team. 2. Susan Tridico serves for a point. 3. Michelle Shade, Joy Holmes, Sue Tridico, and Doreen Gilbert smile before their final home match. 4. 1986 V.V. "Is Anybody Out There?"

"Is Anybody Out There" was the theme of this year's Varsity Varieties. In it, Spock children were beamed into different time zones where they encountered different acts. Posing as Spock's children were Heather Barnes, Stephie Peters, and Tonette Cotton, who served as M.C.'s.

The production was held on November 12 and 13. For the first time a matinee was held as a paid assembly on Friday afternoon. It proved very popular and was followed by another standing room only crowd on Friday evening.

It was two months of hard work which nearly put Director Diane Thompson into a comatose state, but it paid off. Other positions were held by Bill Johnson, producer, and Marnie Yarger, business manager, but it took everybody to make the show a success.

1. The choir performs an effective number. 2. Trina Browning sings a solo. 3. Joy Holmes, Gwen Miller, Libby Hairston, and Chrissy Kennebrew jam to word up. 4. The cross country team led by Tracy White shows other talent as well. 5. Bill Johnson gives a news update. 6. Raquel Eatmon performs another of her popular dances. 7. The cheerleaders get down. 8. Raquel gives Bill another update. 9. Libby stuns the audience with another solo performance. 10. The M.C.'s prove that someone really is out there!

Tyger Band Has Great Season

The Marching Band, led by Percy Hall and assisted by Glenn Fisher, performed at halftimes at football games, at Cedar Point, and in several parades. They split into concert and Symphonic Bands after marching season. Both competed in Districts and in Solo and Ensemble Contests. The Symphonic Band went on to perform in state competition where they earned a II rating. The officers were Cynthia Rawls, president; Michelle Shade, secretary; and Zoraida Lacey, treasurer.

The Jazz Band performed at Varsity Varieties, at the J. C. Gorman assembly, in several jazz festivals, and at assembly programs at Simpson and Sherman.

Mr. Hall was recognized for his contribution to music by earning the Outstanding Ohio Music Educator Award this year. He was also awarded the Presidents Award from the Mansfield Federation of Musicians, and the Outstanding Apple Award from the Board of Education.

1. Tyger Marching Band. 2, 3, 4. Charles Webster, Bryce Milliken, and Chad Stiteler play solos at the awards banquet. 5. Doreen Gilbert gets a big surprise. 6. Flag Corps. 7. Flutes show what they can do during halftime. 8. Jazz Band entertains at the J. C. Gorman Assembly. 9. Mass Confusion right before halftime!

Drama Club Presents "You Can't Take It With You"

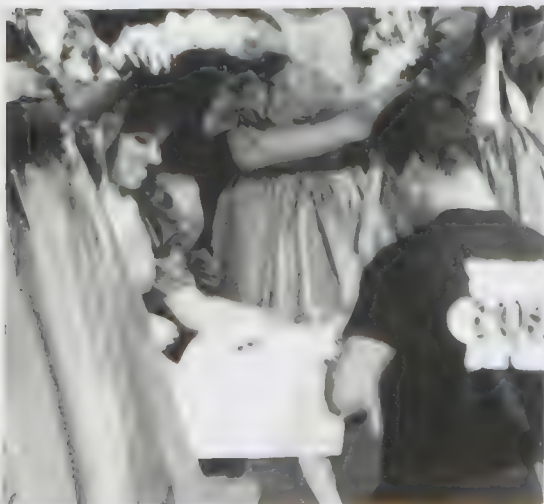

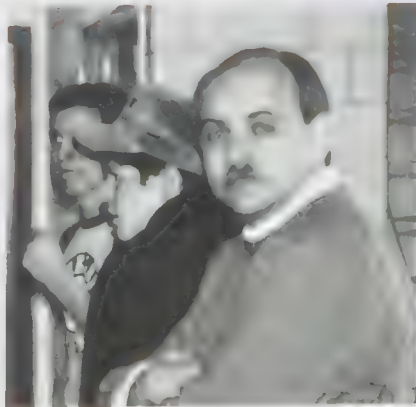

The Drama Club presented the play "You Can't Take It With You" to the school on January 17 as a matinee, and to the public on January 15 and 16 for two evening performances. The play was directed by Mr. William Asher and had a cast of 18 characters.

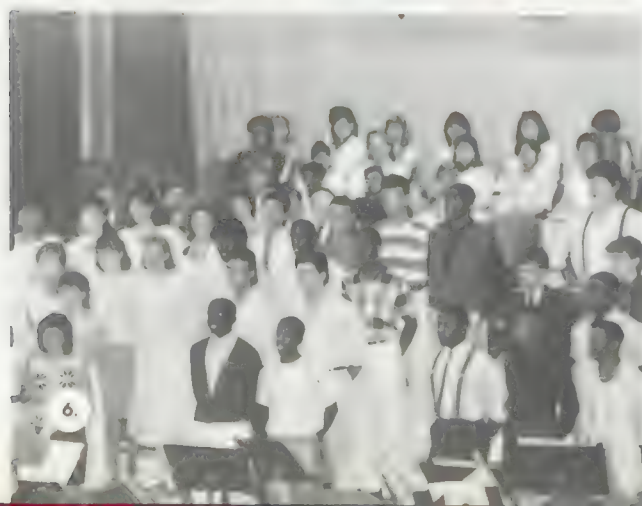

The play is about two families, one rich and the other poor, with totally different people. The three acts take the audience through the problems of these families as they try to get along.

1. Kisha Majors paints a portrait. 2. Bill Johnson takes a nap during practice. 3. Chuck and Brenda have a memorable evening. 4. The cast enjoys dinner. 5. James Dollish shows authority. 6. Lighting crew stretched to the limit! 7. Jim Johnson is surely the ladies' man! 8. A family discussion takes place at the dining room table. 9. Do you know what we're supposed to be doing? 10. The cast gets serious.

WINTER ACTIVITIES

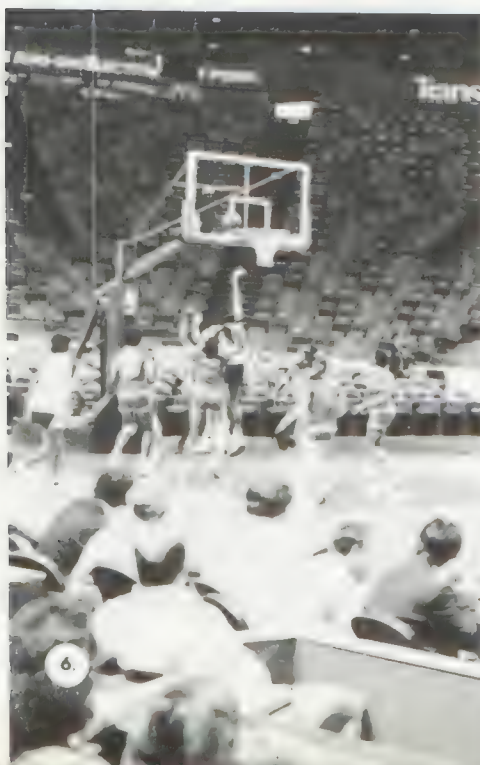

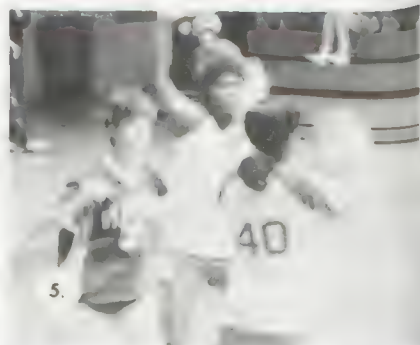

Musical Groups Show Talent In Many Ways

The choir did many exciting things this year; for example, they went to Columbus and sang the Debois with Pickerington, Whetstone, and Columbus West High Schools. In Mansfield they combined with Malabar and several guest soloists to sing the Vivaldi first for Malabar students and then for Senior High students.

The choir could have gone to State Contest but decided to go to Columbus to do a bigger number instead. Award winners this year were Bill Johnson, Sam Luce, Cynthia Whitson, and Olivia Hairston.

The Orchestra, Jazz Band, and Freshman Band performed at several concerts and contests throughout the year.

1. Orchestra. 2. Freshman Band. 3. Jazz Band. 4. 2nd period Choir. 5. 3rd period choir. 6. Tenors and Sopranos sing for the Awards Assembly. 7. Bass and alto singers perform at the Awards Assembly.

Lady Tygers Have Best Record Ever

The Lady Tygers had a season that will be long remembered. With 23 wins and 3 losses, they compiled the best record ever. They have won the Big Six ever year since it has been in existence and have only lost one Big Six game.

The team made it all the way to Regional Finals, where they lost by only one point. The girls were upset, but the loyal Tyger fans stayed with them, escorting them all the way from Mt. Vernon to Pete Henry Gym.

Joy Holmes, Sr. High's leading scorer, was named MVP, had Most Rebounds, Best FG%, and shared the Captains' Award with Gwen Miller and Sue Tridico. Other award winners were Sonya Talley and Latoja Harris, Most Improved; Nancy Jones, Most Assists; and Rokki Johnson, Best FT%

1. Lady Tyger Varsity Basketball Team. 2. Harris shoots for two against Lex. 3. Holmes shoots a power layup against St. Petes. 4. Rokki Johnson gives a bounce pass to another player. 5. Holmes passes to Johnson. 6. Holmes shoots at the Colliseum. 7. Jones shoots a foul shot. 8. Jones dribbles around her opponent. 9. Lady Tygers play at the Colliseum. 10. Hester shoots for two. 11. Tondra Johnson at the foul line. 12. Talley steals the ball from Lex. 13. Lady Tygers show smiles at the Caves' Stadium. 14. Varsity huddles with Coach Miefert. 15. J.V. Girls' Basketball Team.

FRESHMAN 18-0: J.V. BREAKS EVEN

The Freshman Basketball Team finished the season with a perfect 18-0 record. They earned the title of City Champs under Coach Jack Soliday. Coach Soliday was very pleased with the team this year. All ten players contributed almost every game and are well prepared for spots on next year's teams.

The Junior Varsity team, coached by Jim Battisti, ended up the season with a break-even 10-10 record.

1. Freshman Eddie Marshall goes up for a dunk. 2. '86-'87 J.V. Basketball Team. 3. Kenny Feagin shows his free throw form. 4. A J.V. player drives to the hole against Malabar. 5. The Freshman team warms up under the blanket. 6. The J.V. team discusses a winning game plan. 7. '86-'87 Freshman Basketball Team. 8. A J.V. player attempts a free throw. 9. Monteils Holland looks for an open teammate. 10. Eddie Marshall lays one off the glass.

Tygers Surge To Winning Season

The Tyger Varsity Team ended the season with a 12-9 record with only one returning letterman. They started out slowly, but in the second half of the season they showed they could work together and win. They were upset though in a heartbreaking first tournament game against Vermilion. Next year they look forward to six varsity lettermen.

Awards given out at the Winter Sports Awards Program went to Dapries Owens, MVP, Most Points, Most Rebounds, and Best FG%; Ronnie Holmes, Most Improved; Darron Minard, Most Assists, and Best FT%.

1. Minard darts through the defense for a bucket. 2. Holmes lays it in for two. 3. At the charity stripe is Dave Hutchison. 4. Minard slithers a pass through the defense. 5. Owens in his usual form. 6. Jones looks to break the trap. 7. Tyger Varsity Basketball Team. 8. Hutchison finds open man while under pressure. 9. Ronnie Holmes skies for two. 10. Owens tries to pull the Tygers through.

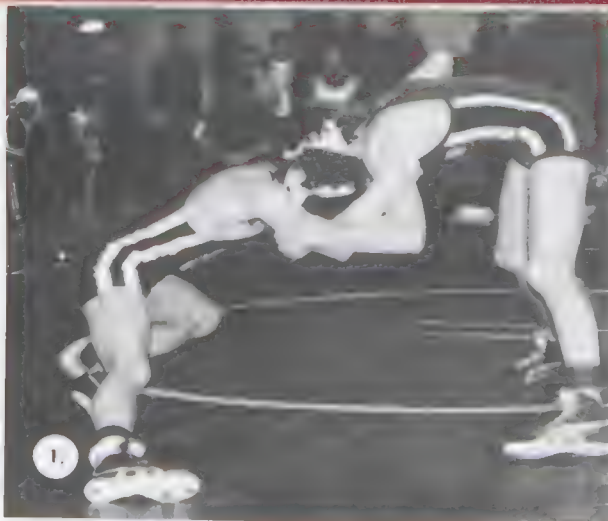

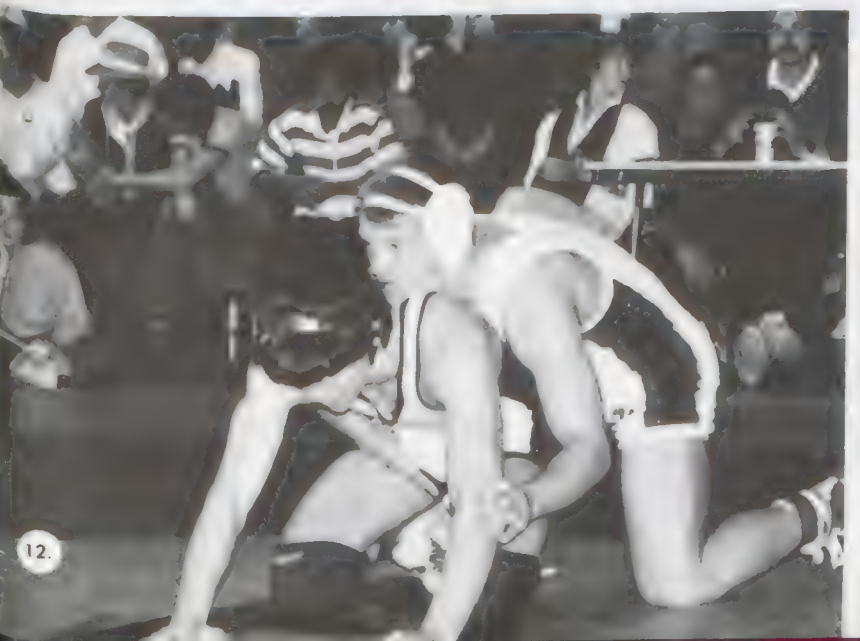

“Ice Castles” Theme of J. C. Gorman

The annual J. C. Gorman Assembly was held on January 9, preceding the annual tournament that weekend. Joy Holmes, who had earlier been elected by secret ballot, was crowned queen by Ha Doan, the 1986 Queen. Members of the court were Kelly McGinty, Andrea Hipp, Doreen Gilbert, and Olivia Hairston.

For the first time Student Council decided to hold the assembly in the auditorium. The girls wore royal blue gowns, and the decorations were royal blue with silver stars and white and blue poinsettias to create the wintry effect of “Ice Castles.” Mrs. Kay summed up the experience by saying, “I was glad we didn’t have to decorate the gym; you can spend days in the gym, and it still looks like a gym every time!”

1. Bryon Bannert and Doreen Gilbert pose in the lobby just before going to the stage. 2. Ronnie Holmes escorts Libby Hairston to the stage. 3. Dave Kracker helps Kelly McGinty up the steps. 4. Dapries Owens and Joy Holmes walk to the stage. 5. Shane Sealey and Andrea Hipp climb the stairs. 6. Diane Thompson and Tracey White serve as M.C.’s. 7. The 1987 J. C. Gorman Court. 8. Girls wait for the last member of the court to take her place. 9. The girls give awards during the tournament finals. 10. The Court await the arrival of Queen Joy.

Young Team Gains Experience

This year's wrestling team was a very young team that gained a lot of experience for next year. While next year's group will also be young, they will be seasoned veterans. Head Coach Nick Confalone, coming out of his first year as Tyger coach, stated, "We will greatly miss our three seniors, Burch, Au, and Young. They scored most of the points in duals and tournaments. They will be tough to replace." Confalone was assisted by Mike Lehman and J.V. Coach Jim Cushing.

Awards went to Mike Burch, MVP; Bobby Au and Jeff Young, Coaches' Award; David Phillips, Most Improved; and Jered Good, Most Improved Reserve.

1. Ron Blevins gives three time state champ Burntt from Oberlin a good match. 2. Burch holds on with all his strength. 3. Scott fights to get off his back. 4. Williams easily keeps his opponent under control. 5. Phillips, with a grimace of frustration, tries to get to his knees. 6. Au waits for a wrong move. 7. Young capitalizes on his opponent's mistake. 8. Johnson looks to the camera while his opponent turns him easily. 9. Burch keeps his man from standing up. 10. Robinson waits for the whistle. 11. Lehman daydreams while Johnson and Phillips rest after some hard fought matches. 12. Au gets set for the whistle.

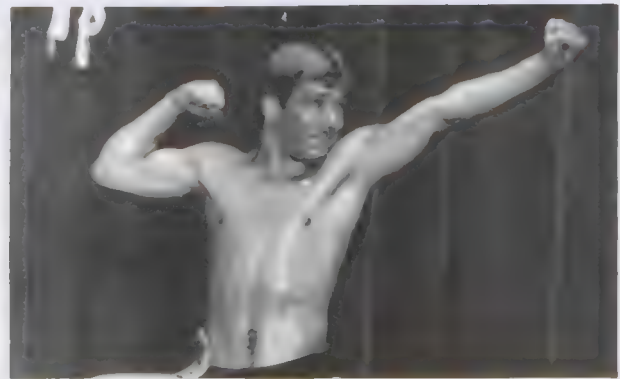

Winter Play Proves Successful

The Mansfield Sr. High production of "NO Sex Please, We're British" by Anthony Marriot and Alistair Foot was a success. The comedy was presented on March 19, 20, and 21 in a matinee performance for the school and two evening performances for the general public.

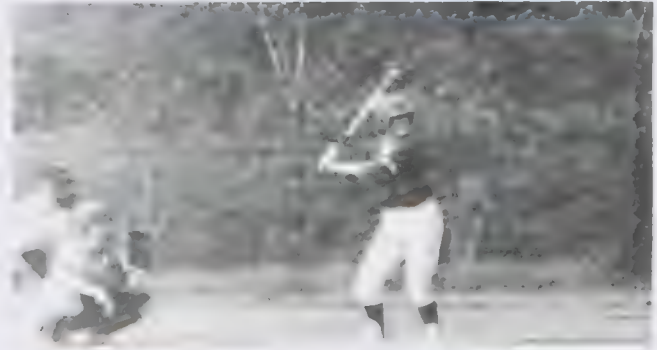

The play, directed by Mr. Asher, was presented in two acts. Ten people took part in the production, but there were many behind the scenes people who earned equal credit for the success of the play.

1. Mr. Asher shows what directing a play is all about. 2. Andy and Brenda investigate. 3. The cast takes a bow. 4. Jim shows Kisha the way out. 5. Bill Johnson cleans the floor. 6. James begs Brenda. What is he begging her? 7. James and Brenda help Darold. 8. Bill shows affection.

Friend Leads Tygers In Rebuilding Year

The '87 season was a definite rebuilding year for the Tyger Tennis Team. Their record was 0-17; however, all seven varsity lettermen will be returning next year, so with practice the team has potential.

Todd Friend had a 16-6 personal record and missed making Regionals by only one match. Todd was named M.V.P. at the Spring Sports Awards Program and also received the Captain's Award. Ron Holmes earned the award for the Most Improved Player this year.

1. Ronnie Holmes shows his tennis ability. 2. Diallo Dulin tries a backhand. 3. Todd Friend tries a very difficult return. 4. David Miller follows through on his serve. 5. 1987 Tyger Tennis Team. 6. Todd makes another great serve. 7. Holmes watches the ball. 8. Steve Ramshaw puts power behind his swing. 9. Eric Johnson returns the ball.

Softball Has A Bright Future

Although the Tygers only won two games, they felt that they had a good season. There were many positive aspects to the season that don't show up in the record.

Next season looks bright, as only two lettermen will be lost. Plans are being made for a J.V. Team and coach, so more girls will be able to get experience and playing time. Coach Wayne Au hopes for a better than 500 season.

Awards went to Andi Lagodich, Best on base % and MVP; Doreen Gilbert, Best Batting Average; Audra Skovranek, RBI's and Most Improved; and Terri Zellner, RBI's.

1. Audra Skovranek plays it safe and on the basepath. 2. Audra decides to go for third. 3. Sue Tridico concentrates on the pitch. 4. Liz and Missy are ready for anything. 5. Andi Lagodich hustles to first base. 6. Audra is still trying to score. 7. '87 Tyger Softball Team. 8. Doreen Gilbert crushes the pitch. 9. Andi gives it her all. 10. Sue keeps her eye on the action. 11. Joyce Garove waits patiently on first. 12. Beth Raphael shows off her athletic ability.

Tygers Experience Winning Season

The Tyger Baseball Team ended the season with a 13-7 record and a trip to the Sectional Finals. They had a great deal of talent, and as a team, they were dominant. They hit the ball well, and when their defense was on top, other teams had no chance. The team will return eight varsity lettermen next year and will have a lot of talent moving up from J.V.

Dave Hutchison and Chris Bottorf shared the MVP award, while Marc Harris had the Best Batting Average, and Ernie Johnson captured the Coach's Award. Mike Randall and Mike Boyd were Most Improved. Varsity coach is John Thomas, assisted by Todd Krill, and J.V. coach is Pete Altman.

1. The varsity team celebrates a victory. 2. Scott Johnson sets for defense. 3. Marc Harris looks for the steal sign. 4. Dave Kracker gets ready to hit the 335 foot blast. 5. Young Team High on Goals

The '87 track team was characterized by Coach Shrodek as "a young group which was small in number, yet big on goals." Most of them possessed great determination and were able to overcome inexperience to become definite over-achievers.

At District Angie Coe placed third in the 200 and second in the 400, while Artemus Bradley placed third in the Long Jump. Bradley teamed with Chris Jones, Rod Davison, and David Phillips to place third in the 4x100 Meter Relay. Eric Hawkins placed sixth in the 1600, not quite high enough to qualify for Regionals.

Head Coach Wilbur Lanier and Rita Gibbs handled sprints, Mike Lehman the field events, and Mike Shrodek the distance events. Volunteer Assistant Charles Black worked with Shotput and Discus.

Girls' awards went to Angie coe, Most Valuable and Most Points; Bonita Moreland, Field Events and Most Improved; Donita Moreland, Coaches' Award; and Christy Kennebrew and Mimaco Grant, Captains' Award. For the boys, Chris Jones captured Most Valuable, Most Field Points, and Most Points; Rod Davison earned Most Improved; Adrian Catchings, Coaches' Award; and Rodney Haynes, Captain's Award.

1. '87 Girls' Track Team. 2. Coach Shrodek times his runners. 3. Jeff Young talks to teammates. 4. The track team in action. 5. Angie Coe shows her winning style. 6. Donita Moreland leads the pack. 7. Christy Kennebrew strains for that extra speed. 9. "What are you talking about, Rodney?" 10. Eric Parker at the hurdles. 11. Freshman Troy Bottorf shows promise. 12. '87 Boys' Track Team.

Prom Theme

"It's the Time to Remember"

Marnie Yarger, who was in charge of decorations this year, chose red and silver as the colors for transforming Snow Trails into something other than a ski lodge for one night. No formal dinner was held, but Dionne's provided a lovely table of hors d'oeuvres for the prom goers to enjoy. The one disappointment of the evening came when the D.J.'s arrived two hours late and then broke down shortly after they started.

For the After Prom seniors and their dates went first to Mansfield Square Cinema and then on to the Raquet Ball Club. They concluded with a breakfast at Ponderosa.

1. Tim Trumpower and his date get nice and close. 2. Erin Sturts shows a little leg. 3. Veronica, Steve, and Paul get a kick out of something. 4. Bill Johnson and Sam Luce take their dates for a walk on the lawn. 5. Tracy needs some adjustment to those suspenders. 6. Everyone enjoys the music except Jeff Morrow. 7. and 8. Promgoers start out slowly but then really get into the music. 9. Melissa Garn gets tired early with no music to keep her going.

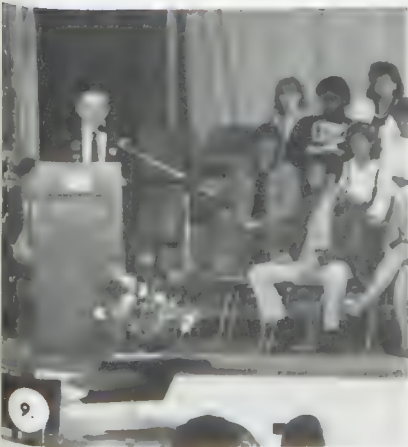

STUDENTS PARTICIPATE IN HONOR ASSEMBLIES

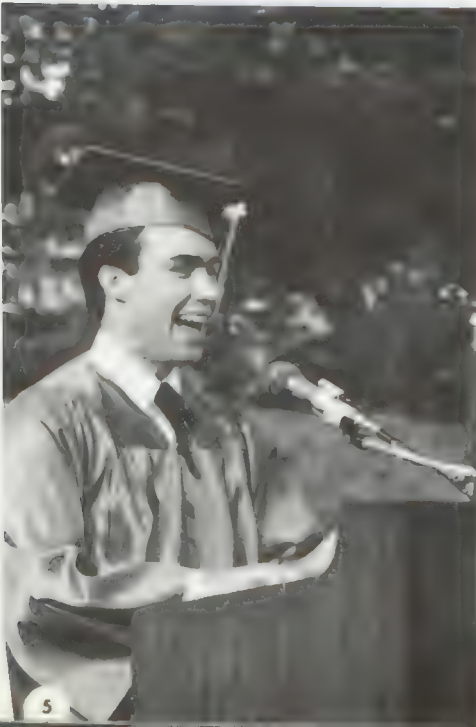

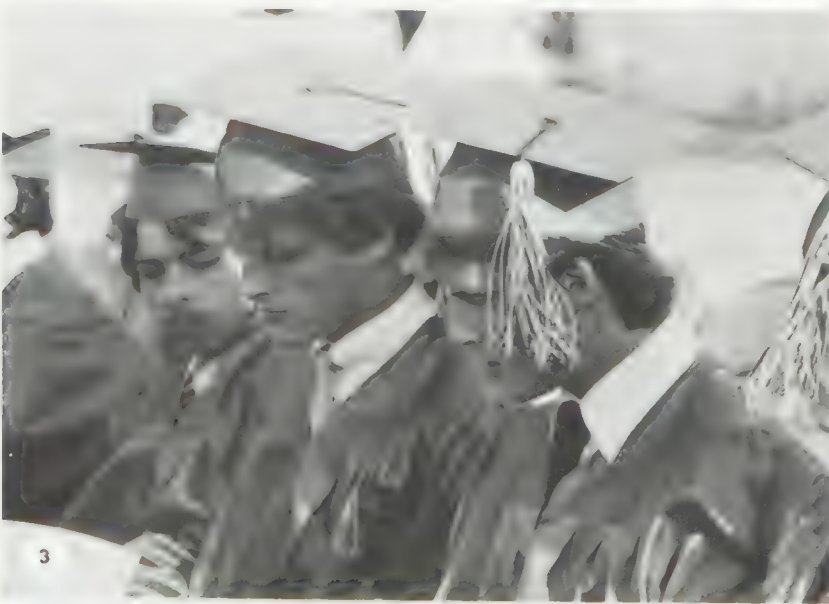

Honors were awarded to Mansfield Senior High students first at the Honors Banquet, then at the schoolwide Honors Assembly, and finally at the annual Class Day ceremony for seniors only.

Top students in all subject areas and tapping for the National Honor Society took place at the Honors Banquet. Students who had all A's for various grading periods or who had been named to the Honor Roll for any six weeks period were honored at the Honors Assembly. Some special awards, for which any student is eligible, were also presented at these functions.

On Class Day seniors were honored for their achievements in all subject areas. Outstanding student awards and Outstanding Athlete awards were presented, as well as other special awards. Scholarship winners were named. The afternoon was topped off with a reception in the cafeteria for all seniors and their parents.

1. Seniors prepare to line up for Class Day. 2. Lisa Stone and Erin Sturts ham it up for the photographer. 3. Distinguished guests and students prepare to be recognized. 4. Mr. Black announces "All A" students. 5. Students march into the auditorium during Class Day. 6. Kelly Scheets makes her final appearance as an MHS Tyger in the gym. 7. Dave Kracker waves to the camera as Class Day activities end. 11. Students are recognized for being in the top ten per cent of their class. 12. Students stand to be recognized for their academic achievements.

SENIORS FINALLY MAKE IT

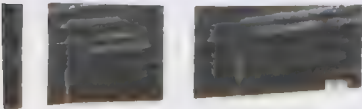

The Class of 1987 held its graduation ceremony at Arlin Field on June 6, 1987, at 6:15 P.M. This class was the smallest to graduate since 1929, but it definitely was not short on talent.

David Kracker presented his speech as Valedictorian, while Tracy White gave the Salutatorian speech. Jeff Morrow, Class President, brought some humor into the proceedings as he welcomed fellow classmates, their families, and guests. Other distinguished speakers included Dr. Douglas Beilstein, representing the Board of Education, Superintendent of Schools Mel Coleman, and Reverend Richard Beal.

1. Mr. Moore and Mr. Davis pass out roses before graduation. 2. Melissa Garn receives her diploma. 3. Scott and Mark Smith check their programs for the day's events. 4. Dave Kracker presents the Valedictory Address. 5. President Jeff Morrow entertains the crowd. 6. The senior class enters Arlin Field. 7. Senior boys prepare to be seated. 8. Zoraida Lacy awaits the ceremony. 9. Pam Fleishner raises her hand in triumph. 10. Senior girls march to their seats.
